

Bible Somehow Survives as Truck Bursts Into Flames

One Texas woman is praising God that she was unharmed when her vehicle burst into flames on Sunday.

Trina Carr said God spoke to her while she was driving her truck and told her to pull over, KTRK-TV reports.

After she pulled over to the side of the road, her truck started smoking, so she immediately got out of the vehicle.

The Deer Park Fire Department arrived and began extinguishing the fire. While searching the vehicle, firefighters noticed a Bible sitting on the dashboard.

The area around the Bible was severely burned and damaged, but the book was almost unaffected by the smoke and flames.

The fire department wrote, "Only a little water on the pages other than [sic] that all were untouched by the fire."
