

Blind See, Deaf Hear at Bonnke Meeting in Africa

The Holy Spirit has swept across Burkina Faso, a landlocked country in West Africa, last week.

Evangelists Reinhard Bonnke and Daniel Kolenda wrapped up the fourth night of Christ for All Nations' Gospel Campaign there and are reporting an outpouring.

"The Holy Spirit was poured out on the multitude in a mass baptism of fire! Dramatic signs and wonders accompanied the preaching of gospel," Kolenda wrote in an update to partners.

"An old mama who was totally blind for two years received her sight. A woman with a lump in each of her breasts, said that during the prayer both lumps vanished. A totally deaf woman was also completely healed along with another blind girl."

Saturday morning marked the grand finale of the Fire Conference. Peter van den Berg preached with Kolenda following. Before he could take the microphone, Kolenda says the Holy Spirit was already falling.

"We just took our hands off the 'reigns' and let the Holy Spirit have His way," Kolenda says. "It was glorious!"
