

Brave Preschooler Saves Life of Mommy (and Unborn Baby Brother)

When her epileptic mother collapsed, 4-year-old Calise Manning knew it was not a drill.

“I told you I was going to take care of you,” Centerria Manning says her daughter told her.

Without hesitation, the little girl called 9-1-1, telling operators exactly what they needed to know—and some additional information.

Watch the video to see this precious family.