

BREAKING NEWS: Israel Approves Proposed Ceasefire with Hezbollah

The Israeli government has approved a ceasefire deal with the Iranian-backed army of Hezbollah to put a stop to the group's relentless rocket barrages that have terrorized civilians across northern Israel for nearly 14 months.

The decision came after Israeli warplanes struck terrorist targets across Lebanon on Tuesday, killing at least 24 people while also warning civilians to evacuate before its strikes.

Israel also achieved a primary goal of the war on Tuesday as its ground troops reached parts of Lebanon's Litani River to push Hezbollah's terrorist army away from its border.

Even while announcing the ceasefire, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu remained steadfast in warning, "If Hezbollah breaks the agreement and tries to rearm, we will attack. For every violation, we will attack with might."
