

Call to Prayer: Prophecies Predict Attempts on Trump's Life, Terrorist Attacks as Inauguration Nears

President-elect Donald Trump has long been seen by Christians as a modern-day Cyrus, the ancient Persian king used by God to, as Lance Wallnau has said, "navigate in chaos." But does still more chaos lie ahead? With disturbing news coming from the prophetic realm, prophets including Wallnau, Brandon Biggs and others are urgently calling on Christians to intercede for Trump's safety and for our nation.

Oh Boy! Flying into D.C. and just read the following text...

Decision was made today to move Innauguration indoors to a Hockey Arena.

"Today on our prayer zoom, a 7 year old boy last week in Guatemala had a dream that President Trump was shot on live TV in a hockey arena."

Following his original X post, Wallnau explained, also on X, "I post this because my audience prays and since I myself am going [to the inauguration] I want to be a presence in the place that prays against the demons in that place."

As Charisma News reported, the inauguration will take place in the U.S. Capitol Rotunda, with the nearby Capitol One Arena open for live viewing of the event. That arena is home to professional teams including the NHL's Washington Wizards, and Trump said in his announcement about the switch that he will "join the crowd at Capital One, after my Swearing In."

Perhaps even more significant than Wallnau's report of the 7-year-old's prophetic dream, however, was a livestreamed interview (with over 130,000 views as of this writing) conducted by radio show host Alex Jones with prophet Brandon Biggs of "Last Days" on X and YouTube. Biggs accurately predicted the July 13 attempts on Trump's life months before it occurred. In the Jan. 17 interview with Jones, Biggs calls the body of Christ to pray for Trump and specifically for the inauguration, saying God called him to create a "prayer army of people to come on and change things through prayer."

Biggs gives multiple prophetic warnings during the interview, referencing a vision of terrorist attacks by Iran on the U.S. with "over 1,000 men" being smuggled into the U.S. to carry out what he called "a huge 9/11 type event" to occur in 10 major U.S. cities, each with a target related either to Trump or to the cause of freedom. Biggs also says the Lord showed him the terrorists using drone attacks on major stadiums, noting that one of his intercessors pointed out to him that "1/19 backwards is 9/11." He adds that God showed him two more assassination attempts on Trump's life through prophetic visions as well as attempts on the lives of Trump's oldest sons, Donald Jr. and Eric.

"We've got to intercede for this man to finish his race and what God has called him to do," Biggs says. "Because it's vital ... if Satan himself, if he wasn't scared of what's about to happen ... what's about to happen is a major revival. The Lord has showed me a major revival that's coming from sea to shining sea, and we're going to see the greatest move of God we've ever seen on this planet, ever, and Trump is a major part of bringing forth the stability in this nation to bring forth this major revival."

In addition, Biggs references the following video, posted Jan. 13 to his YouTube channel and referring to "another watchman" in Australia who had a dream about an attempt on Trump's life to take place in a hockey stadium. The woman shared the dream with prophetic evangelist Billye Brim, who took it to Biggs, and Briggs used that warning as impetus to call believers to intercede.

In this season, it is imperative that believers pray for our nation as never before, standing against the schemes of the devil and remembering that "our fight is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places" (Eph. 6:12). As Biggs tells listeners in his interview with Jones, "You must pray for Trump and for his children. Because if they can't get to him, they'll try to get to what's important to him."
