

Christian Parents Issue Urgent Prayer Alert After Kidnappers Allegedly Abduct Their 3-Year-Old Son

Christian parents have asked for prayer and government intervention after kidnappers allegedly abducted their 3-year-old son from their home in Kenya.

Daisy and Matt Mazzoncini began caring for Kiano three years ago when Daisy met him at a children's home. Baby Kiano weighed just 4.5 kilos, or not quite 10 pounds, at 6 months old. The child has been in and out of the hospital since he was a baby and is still prone to seizures.

The Mazzoncinis were granted legal guardianship over Kiano in 2017, as Kenya enacted a moratorium on foreign adoption in 2014. The guardianship will last until Kiano is 18.
