

Chris Reed's 6-Year-Old Prophecy Just Happened –You Won't Believe It!

When God speaks to His prophets, He does so in ways that no one can deny His power.

In a recent livestream, prophetic voice Chris Reed uncovered a prophecy he made from back on Feb. 2, 2019, when he predicted Kamala Harris' rise as a contender against Donald Trump, and how ultimately she would fail to become the president.

"Her name is Kamala Harris," says Reed in the video. "I'm not prophesying she's going to become president; don't misunderstand what I'm saying here. But she will be down at the end, a finalist for the Democratic nomination. She's been handpicked to replace President Trump by the elites in Washington. This is yet to unfold."

Reed further explained that Harris' goal would be to enlarge the Democratic, liberal agenda as a bridge builder for the party. However, her ultimate goals would fall apart.

"Her goal, of course, will be to become president. And this plan will fail, and she will be heartbroken."

When God speaks to His prophets, He does so with undeniable power, revealing glimpses of His divine plan to those who have ears to hear. Chris Reed's prophecy is a reminder that God is actively involved in the affairs of nations, using His messengers to forewarn, guide and confirm His sovereign will. When prophecies unfold as spoken, it is a testament to His supreme authority and a call for believers to remain steadfast in faith.

However, while God speaks through His prophets, He also calls His people to exercise wisdom and discernment. Not every voice that claims to be prophetic is from Him, and it is our responsibility to test everything against Scripture and the leading of the Holy Spirit. As we witness prophetic words coming to pass, let it strengthen our trust in God's plan, but also remind us to seek Him diligently in all things, for His wisdom never fails.
