

Christian Leaders React to Inauguration Day

As Donald Trump has officially been sworn in as the 47th president of the United States, Christians leaders are sharing their take on this year's inaugural events.

"WELCOME to America," Pastor Jack Hibbs writes on X.

WELCOME TO AMERICA

"Happy is the nation whose God is Yahweh – the people He has chosen to be His own possession!" – psalm 33:12

May God have mercy on these United States for benevolent welfare of all who live freedom.

Protect Now President Donald John Trump.

“Congratulations to Donald J. Trump on being elected as the 47th President of the United States of America,” Laurie writes. “May the Lord surround him with godly people who provide wise counsel as he leads our nation during this critical time in American history. God bless him, and God bless the United States of America!”

In a video, Laurie also commends the Christians who have been placed in Trump’s sphere to provide wise counsel.

Here are my thoughts and prayers for today:

“I was honored to give an invocation at our nation's 60th presidential inauguration ceremony before President @realDonaldTrump and Vice President @JDVance were sworn in today,” writes Graham. “I urged those in attendance to stand still and remember the great things that God has done for this country and to keep our eyes fixed on Him. Will you join me in praying for President Trump and our leaders?”

Jentezen Franklin also praised God for Trump's great victory.

Congratulations @realDonaldTrump! Thank you for giving God the glory for your presidency. He will bless this. It was great to shake hands for a moment and say hello Saturday night. Honored to participate in two prayer services, praying for and speaking to many incoming cabinet...
