

Clay Clark and Gen. Michael Flynn's Reawaken America Tour Goes Viral

What organizer Clay Clark calls the BOOM, Big Optimistic Overwhelming Momentum, continues to increase. Without exception, each of the planned Reawaken America conferences sells out long before the scheduled date. If you are even thinking of attending, get your tickets in advance.

Why is there so much interest in attending these events? There are many reasons.

First, ticket prices. The requested ticket price is $ general admission; $ VIP admission or whatever you can afford. That's right; if you cannot afford the requested ticket price, you can send a text and get set up for an interview to award you a scholarship. Pastors receive a 50% discount because pastors are key in helping kill the spirit of fear, sharing the truth and getting Christians engaged in the culture to restore our nation.

Next there's the lineup of speakers and musicians. The exponential synergy from the event success in Oklahoma and Florida has attracted many well-known, highly respected patriot leaders: Gen. Michael Flynn, Patrick Byrne, Mike Lindell, Roger Stone, Sean Feucht, Amanda Grace, Scott McKay, Pastor Leon Benjamin and many more. There are more than 50 speakers on the main roster with more added daily. Clark reports people are contacting him to ask to be a part of the event; that's how powerful the momentum is. The specific confirmed speakers for each event are updated regularly on the web site for each venue.

Then—and perhaps the most compelling reason of all—is the message of reliable truth and certain hope. Believing our nation has been deceived on many levels, Clark understands people's ability to trust and embrace their personal futures with optimism has been devastated. Initially unaware of the extent of God's hand in his efforts, Clark knew he had to research to know the truth. Once he learned the truth about events starting early 2020 for America and people around the world, Clark set out to fight the lies with truth. Only then did he learn more about God's plan concerning him, and now there's no stopping him or the BOOM.

Everyone associated with the Reawaken America Tour is committed to the following objectives:

- Kill the spirit of fear.
- Make the truth known.
- Rally Christians specifically to be engaged in the church and local politics.

At a time when some attempted to impose fear and intimidation to gain control of America and the people, we are observing an awakening of the people, who reject tyranny and oppression and want to see evil overcome with good. Clay Clark's Reawaken America Tour is bringing increased optimism that our nation can be restored for and by the people as one nation under God.
