ABC Suspends Whoopi Goldberg Over Antisemitic Remarks

Whoopi Goldberg was suspended for two weeks Tuesday as co-host of The View because of what the head of ABC News called her "wrong and hurtful comments" about Jews and the Holocaust.

"While Whoopi has apologized, I've asked her to take time to reflect and learn about the impact of her comments. The entire ABC News organization stands in solidarity with our Jewish colleagues, friends, family and communities," ABC News President Kim Godwin said in a statement.

The suspension came a day after Goldberg's comment during a discussion on The View that race was not a factor in the Holocaust. Goldberg apologized hours later and again on Tuesday's morning episode, but the original remark drew condemnation from several prominent Jewish leaders.

'Freedom Convoy' Truckers Pause for Prayer Amid Protest

Vowing to remain stationed at the border, truckers with the so-called "Freedom Convoy" were captured on video Monday reciting the Lord's Prayer as they gathered inside a nearby restaurant.

The prayer came amid tension between Canadian law enforcement officers and truck drivers protesting stringent government mandates requiring unvaccinated truckers commit to two weeks of isolation as well as produce negative COVID-19 tests before being allowed to re-enter Canada. Similar mandates have been put in place by President Joe Biden.

Truckers agreed to open up one lane of traffic, allowing residents, school bus drivers and emergency personnel to pass through, according to Rebel News, whose reporters are on the ground in Coutts, Alberta, at the border.

Lance Wallnau Leads Charge for Taking Back Ground in America

Lance Wallnau shares with Joni Lamb on Daystar's Ministry Now about how God gave him a word while he was in Brazil. It came through the pastor who was hosting the meeting there.

God spoke from the book of Joshua, which describes how he went to the valley in a battle with the Amorites, "taking and recovering ground that needed to be taken," Wallnau says.

He then recounts the part of the story in which Joshua called the sun and moon to stand still in the valley (Josh. 10:12-14) and how God answered his request. {eo}
