

CN Morning Rundown: 'Amazing Miracles' Taking Place as Multitudes of Inmates Getting Saved and Baptized

Here's a quick summary of the top stories on :

'Amazing Miracles' Taking Place as Multitudes of Inmates Getting Saved and Baptized

A national prison ministry has seen more than 450 inmates baptized after giving their lives to Christ this year.

God Behind Bars says "Jesus is moving in POWER!" after the number of inmates accepting salvation has more than quadrupled since 2021.

"In comparison, last year, only 90 were baptized," the organization wrote on Facebook. "The gospel is spreading like we have never seen in prisons. Jesus is moving in POWER! Many prisons were shut down last year but this verse has been our promise... 'You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives,' (Gen. 50:20)"

Holy Spirit Continues to Send Revival Waves Out From Kansas Pentecostal Church

The Kansas revival of 1901 under Charles Parham ignited the Pentecostal Movement which spread to Houston, Texas. From there, it spread to Bonnie Brae Street and Azusa Street in Los Angeles under William Seymour beginning in 1906, where Charisma author and evangelist Verna Hall Linzey of Coffeyville, Kansas preached a revival in 2012.

From Los Angeles, it went worldwide. But the flames of the Kansas revival have never died out in the past 121 years, nor has it died out in neighboring Tulsa, Oklahoma to the south.

In a recent interview with Rev. Don Martin, who is the current and sixth pastor of the 100-year-old Metro Pentecostal Church of Tulsa, Oklahoma, which is one of the two oldest Pentecostal churches in Tulsa, he said that Metro Pentecostal Church was established in 1922 as the First Pentecostal Church of Garden City, Oklahoma, under the leadership of Pastor Arthur T. Duck. Today, it is located on 51st Street in Tulsa.

Prophetic Insight into the UK Beyond Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II

As nations mourn the loss of Queen Elizabeth II, I feel an urgency to point back to prophetic insight the Lord gave me in August 2019 concerning the Queen's passing.

It's a promise and a warning.

I offer this in a spirit of humility and compassion, knowing that some may not want to hear it, but many others desperately need to hear it. I have held my peace through the initial shock of the loss. Now, I feel it's time to share. {eo}