

CN Morning Rundown: BREAKING: Rittenhouse Verdict Stuns, Kenosha Prepared for Protests

Here's a quick summary of the top stories on :

BREAKING: Rittenhouse Verdict Stuns, Kenosha Prepared for Protests

Volumes of politically charged commentary, two weeks of testimony and close to 3 1/2 days of deliberation came to a stunning conclusion today as a verdict of not guilty on all charges was announced in the trial of Kyle Rittenhouse, 18.

The Illinois teen, then 17, fatally shot two men and wounded a third on Aug. 25, 2020, during a night of unrest after the police shooting of Jacob Blake, a Black man, in Kenosha, Wisconsin.

A jury of seven women and five men brought the verdict before Judge Bruce Schroeder, who presided over an often-tumultuous trial.

Why You Will Never Forget This Holiday Season

We seem to have entered a nightmare that does not appear to have an ending. Earlier this year, many of the "experts" assured us that the U.S. economy would be "booming" by the end of 2021, but that didn't turn out to be true at all.

Instead, we are dealing with widespread shortages, the worst inflation since the 1970s, and the most epic supply chain crisis in the history of the United States. So, this year, we are all going to have a "new normal" holiday season. The upcoming holidays may not be quite what you have become accustomed to, but the elite are still trying to put a positive spin on things.

For example, CNN is encouraging us to look on the bright side by assuring us that we “won’t have to cancel Thanksgiving” even though store shelves are increasingly bare.

Benny Hinn Unlocks the Mysteries of the Anointing

Evangelist Benny Hinn, whom I’ve known for many years, has grasped some key biblical truths that may explain a problem we’ve all observed through the years. A gifted minister fails morally or in some other way, yet continues to be used by God. How can this be? Hinn says it all has to do with the anointing, and his new book coming out with our company this spring, Mysteries of the Anointing, explains much more about it.

Hinn’s interest in this topic began with a word from the Lord the late Oral Roberts gave him in the midst of one of the hardest times of his life—a bitter divorce from his wife, Suzanne (the two have since remarried and are happy today). While working on his book, he came to our offices in Lake Mary, Florida, to share some of what he’s learned with our staff, and we’ve turned this material into two episodes of my Strang Report podcast. The material shared here comes from the first half of his message.

Many years ago, Hinn says, he had a revealing conversation with Roberts about someone he knew who was highly anointed for ministry but also had an immoral lifestyle. “I would listen to him [preach] and weep,” Hinn says. He asked Roberts, “How can somebody preach with such an anointing that moves your heart, and then go and do this?” {eo}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.