

CN Morning Rundown: Did This Principal Really Just Receive a Lap Dance From a Cross-Dressing Student at Homecoming?

Here's a quick summary of the top stories on :

Did This Principal Really Just Receive a Lap Dance From a Cross-Dressing Student at Homecoming?

Depraved activity continues to take place in our nation's high schools, and students are not apologizing for it at all.

This past weekend, a teenage boy at Hazard High School in Kentucky gave lap dances" to his high school principal and other school staff members at a homecoming event. Photos that have surfaced on the internet show that Principal Donald Mobelilni, who is also the city's mayor, with a "big grin on his face" while the boy, draped in a black dress, bent over in front of him, media outlets have reported.

Meanwhile, reports, students say the lap dance and "man pageant" were all done in fun.

'Joe Biden Is No More Catholic Than Is Lucifer,' Says American Life League

"Joe Biden excommunicated himself almost 50 years ago," according to the American Life League president, who served as a three-time appointee to the Pontifical Academy for Life. "Pope Francis needs to hold Biden accountable and demand he spend every moment he has left on this earth publicly repenting and atoning for the evil of abortion that he has empowered.”

“Judie Brown has served on the Pontifical Academy for Life in addition to being president of the American Life League,” explained Jim Sedlak, executive director of the American Life League, which has been defending the life of the preborn for over four decades. Appointed twice by Pope Saint John Paul II and once by Pope Benedict XVI, Brown served the official papal academy in its dedicated mission to promoting the Roman Catholic church’s respect for every human being’s life.

Along with Hugh Brown, American Life League executive vice president, Judie Brown urges Pope Francis to not insult the “body of Christ.” They explain, “Sadly, we have learned that Pope Francis will not only be meeting with U.S. President Joe Biden, but could have an opportunity to choose whether or not to give the president the sacrament of Holy Communion. Such an act, if carried out, would be an abomination to faithful Catholics.” Cutting to the chase, Hugh Brown notes, “Joe Biden is no more Catholic than is Lucifer.”

School Board Member ‘Honored’ To Take Elementary Students to Gay Bar

The leaders of a public school in southeastern Florida took elementary-age children on a field trip to a gay bar.

School board member Sarah Leonardi announced via Twitter she took students from Wilton Manors Elementary School in Broward County to Rosie’s Bar and Grill—a local gay bar—on Wednesday.

Leonardi said she “was so honored” to chaperone for the trip to the “incredible” bar. {eo}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.