

CN Morning Rundown: Ex-Satanist and Former Meth Addict: 'I Couldn't Stand Who I Was'

Here's a quick summary of the top stories on :

Ex-Satanist and Former Meth Addict: 'I Couldn't Stand Who I Was'

Not too long ago, Carl Sartor would have described himself as someone who hated God. But today, the 35-year-old says he wants everyone to experience God's love.

Carl's story of salvation went viral on social media with more than 325,000 views on Facebook before it was made into a private post.

Carl gave his life to Christ at Cross Church in Parkersburg, West Virginia, in November.

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Convergence! Progressives Are Coming Apart While Patriots Are Coming Forth

A new day is dawning in America! We need to celebrate it and cooperate with it.

Ten recent developments reveal that God is exposing and thwarting those whom Scripture calls "enemies of the cross of Christ" (Phil. 3:18, NIV).

If you've battled discouragement over the direction of our country, this compelling commentary will lift your spirits. Watch it now and pass it along to encourage others!

Jonathan Cahn Reveals Link Between Abortion, COVID-19 and

God's Judgment on America

On January 22, 2019, the 46th anniversary of the Roe v. Wade decision, New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo signed the Reproductive Health Act into law. The law allowed for a child to be killed up until the time of birth for any reason.

In celebration, One World Trade Center's top spire was lit in pink.

One year later, on January 21, 2020, the first case of COVID-19 was confirmed in the U.S. According to Rabbi Jonathan Cahn, this is no coincidence. He believes that the timing of COVID-19's beginning is part of God's judgment on America and on New York for the sin of killing our children. {eoa}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.