

CN Morning Rundown: Holy Spirit Breathed: FBI Rescues Multitudes of Child Sex Trafficking Victims

Here's a quick summary of the top stories on :

Holy Spirit Breathed: FBI Rescues Multitudes of Child Sex Trafficking Victims

The Federal Bureau of Investigation announced this week its agents located 84 victims of underage sex trafficking and 37 missing children during a nationwide operation conducted in early August.

Of the 121 total minors rescued, the FBI said the average age is 15 years old. The youngest victim found during the initiative, "Operation Cross Country," is 11 years old. The federal agency also rescued 141 adult victims of human trafficking.

The national operation, which oversaw 391 localized initiatives across the country, took place in the first two weeks of August.

'Bible Glove' Gives New Royals' Pitcher Extra Firepower on the Mound

Pitcher Luke Weaver, a seven-year Major League Baseball veteran, was recently traded by the Arizona Diamondbacks to the Kansas City Royals for the third baseman Emmanuel Rivera.

Sports Spectrum reports the trade will give the 28-year-old right-handed relief pitcher a chance to demonstrate not only his near 100 miles-per-hour fastball but also the opportunity to show off his faith-inspired "Bible glove" to his new fans.

The Royals tweeted out a welcome to Weaver.

WATCH: The Prophetic Peace That Comes from the Mar-a-Lago Invasion

Like many Americans, Rabbi Curt Landry was horrified at the FBI's recent invasion of former President Donald Trump's personal residence at Mar-a-Lago in Florida. And, Landry says, this unspeakable action has a prophetic significance for the body of Christ.

"The Scripture that the Lord gives me about this comes from Haggai 1, beginning in verse four," says Landry, the founder of Curt Landry Ministries. "'Is it time for you yourselves to live in paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins? Now, therefore, thus says the Lord of Hosts: Consider your ways. You have sown much and harvested little. You eat, but you do not have enough. You drink, but you are not filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes.'"

So, what does that scripture mean for the body of Christ?
{eoa}