Why You May Not Be 'Fully Vaccinated' Anymore

Health officials are considering whether or not the definition of "fully vaccinated" should be updated now that the Centers for Disease Control and the Food and Drug Administration have approved COVID-19 boosters shots.

During a White House briefing on Friday, CDC Director Dr. Rochelle Walensky said the U.S. "may need to update" its definition explaining what constitutes full vaccination against COVID.

"We have not yet changed the definition of 'fully vaccinated.' We will continue to look at this. We may need to update our definition of 'fully vaccinated' in the future," Walensky said during the briefing.

One of Satan's Craftiest End-Time Strategies to Trap 'Believers'

The Bible constantly warns us about the craftiness of Satan and his plans to win people to him—even those who are confessed followers of Jesus. There is one strategy, Lion of Judah Ministries says, that has worked well to the enemy's advantage to trap people and keep them in sin.

Having a seared conscience is the worst place for a Christian to be. As it says in 1 Timothy 4:1-2, "Now the Spirit clearly says in the last times some will depart from the faith and pay attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils, speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their consciences seared with a hot iron.”

“You see it in churches, and you see it in the world. The devil is trying to infiltrate the consciences of people,” the narrator of this ministry video says. “The devil wants people to keep committing the same sin over and over again until their conscience becomes dead, until their conscience becomes accustomed to it. The devil wants people to keep going back to their sin repeatedly until their life is adjusted to that pattern of living.

Larry Tomczak’s Week in Review: Conservative Activist Reveals Incriminating Evidence
