

Colorado Lawmaker Cites Psalm 109:8 in Jab at President Biden

Colorado Republican Rep. Lauren Boebert recently made headlines when she joked about praying for President Joe Biden's demise, media sites have reported.

She made the comments about Biden while speaking to a cheering crowd at the Family Camp Meeting at Charis Christian Center in Colorado Springs, which included a series of pastors and speakers "who have proven God's Word," according to the Charis Christian Center website.

Boebert said during her speech, "I do want you to know that I pray for our president. Psalm 109:8 says, 'May his days be few and another take his office.' Hallelujah, glory to God."
