"This is the biggest season we've ever done by far, and that's because the story demands it," says Jenkins. "You've never seen this side of Jesus before. We've seen hints of it, I mean, this is turning over the tables time."

From the portrayal of Jesus with the religious leaders, in the temple, having His Last Supper with the disciples and more, this is the premiere Christian show viewers will not want to miss on its Mar. 27, theater release date.
