

Definitive Proof Jesus Can Set You Free From Homosexuality

Come Saturday, hundreds of men and women who know true freedom from homosexuality and transgender identities will march on Washington to share just what the Lord has done.

It's called the Freedom March, and former members of the LGBT community say it shows their pride of being adopted into the family of Christ.

Ahead of the march, members of the "freedom family," shared their testimonies with Charisma News. Other marches are scheduled across the country later this year, including one in St. Paul in June and in Orlando in September.

Find out more here, and check out their stories below: