

Deliverance Minister Janet Sudduth Loses Cancer Battle

Janet Sudduth has passed away after a long battle against cancer. Sudduth launched Righteous Acts Ministries with her husband, Bill, to bring healing and restoration to the body of Christ.

“My beautiful wife, friend and partner in the gospel went home to be with the Lord early this morning ending a 19-month long battle with cancer,” Bill wrote in an email to supporters. “God Heals in two ways and He chose this way to heal Janet today. We are saddened by our loss, but know she is in a much better place. She will be missed by all of us who love her so dearly.”

The Sudduths were actively involved in the Brownsville Revival. The couple also served on the pastoral care staff at the Brownsville Revival School of Ministry in Pensacola, Fla.

The Sudduths were the leaders of the International Society of Deliverance Ministers, which was an outgrowth of C. Peter Wagner's Apostolic Roundtable of Deliverance Ministers.
