"This is the first assassination attempt on a president since Ronald Reagan, and so I believe God intervened and saved his life," Anderson says. "We should be praying for our president, praying for our country...it's just shocking."

Anderson says that Trump is fighting to save America with backing from both faith and political leaders.

"We're at a pivotal moment in history," Anderson says.

As the nation has rallied behind Trump, especially with the start of the Republican National Convention and his pick of J.D. Vance as his vice-presidential running mate, the entire country has taken an interest in Trump. This includes the realm of prophecy regarding the former president.

Anderson is releasing a new book which is slated to come out in September, "The Trump Code: Exploring Time Travel, Nikola Tesla, and the Trump Lineage." This fascinating topic looks at some prophetic writings in nature surrounding the former president and his family.

"It sort of puts this 5,000-piece puzzle together," Anderson says. "There's a guy named Ingersoll Lockwood who was a lawyer and an author in the late 1800s and he wrote a series of books called "The Baron Trump Collection" about this boy named Baron Trump who lives in Trump Castle on Fifth Avenue in New York where Trump Tower now stands today. And he goes on these adventures, and he's guided by the 'master of masters,' Don, his uncle...he goes on like these time traveling things."

These eerie, uncanny connections written about long ago to the actual Trump family may just be prophetic in nature. As the entire world has seen the hand of God protect the former president in real-time, it's possible that there is still more to his life, legacy and story to come.
