

Did Trump Just Fulfill this Prophecy about the Border?

Has President Donald Trump just fulfilled a prophecy relating to the border and the war on drugs?

Amid Trump's swift decisions to tighten up the U.S. southern border for the protection of American citizens against illegal immigrants who have committed crimes, prophetic voice Charlie Shamp has released an Oct. 15, 2018 prophecy he had regarding the border, the war on drugs and President Trump.

While in prayer recently I was shown that another great war against drugs was about to begin. I heard the Lord say, "Watch and see as my hand of judgement falls on those who have dealt narcotics and trafficked drugs in your nation. Many will be shocked as they see drug lords brought to justice in the days ahead."

I saw Lady Justice at the nation's borders with a balance in her hand. On one side there were illegal drugs on the other side were the words justice and judgement. I heard the Lord say, "Whoever says to the guilty, 'You are innocent,' will be cast out by righteous judges and denounced by this God fearing nation. I tell you this day it will go well with those who convict the guilty and rich blessing will come on them, but those who turn a blinded eye and allow darkness to continue will I utterly destroy. Justice will be done in America, it will bring joy to the righteous in the nation, but terror to evildoers who hide in the shadows in the country. I will reveal the deep things of darkness and bring utter darkness into the light for judgement and destruction."

Shamp not only saw the downfall of the the drug lords and the turning of justice to the nation, but he also predicted that the Trump administration would have the strength and the power to completely change the current drug smuggling situation.

I saw that President Trump and his administration would take the strongest stance that any American president had ever taken on drug smuggling in the nation's history. There would be a heavy initiative by the administration to fight a war against drugs in every city in the nation. I looked to the boarder in the south and saw a great river that flowed separating the United States from Mexico. I heard the Lord say, "Justice will roll on like a river, righteousness like a never-failing stream."

Shamp further foresaw cooperation between America and Mexico as they would work together to end the reign of drug cartels.

I suddenly saw two organized criminal groups decimated by the DEA and the Government of Mexico. I saw that America and Mexico would begin to cooperate on combating the flow of illegal drugs into the nation through exchange of information and intelligence. As a result both the Sinaloa cartel as well as the Cartel de Jalisco Nueva Generacion were brought to justice. I also saw the hand of Judgement fall on three major drug lords; Ismael Zambada García, Rafael Caro Quintero, Nemessio Oseguera Cervantes. They will be brought to justice by the hand of God! God will bring judgment upon these wicked men, for there will be a time for every activity, a time to judge every deed done in the body.

The illegal drug industry has had a dramatic effect on the lives of millions of Americans for decades. Let's pray for these chains of bondage to be shattered, and for God's justice to light up the world around us.
