

Dolly Parton Speaks Out: 'Ain't Dead Yet'

As the world stirred in a panic worrying about Dolly Parton's health after her sister, Freida Parton, made a post on Facebook requesting prayers for the singer, the country music legend is now speaking out about the situation.

"Well today's October the 8," Parton says in a video posted to social media with the caption, "Ain't dead yet."

Parton then joked, "Do I look sick to you? I'm working hard here."

The "Jolene" singer then said that she wanted to "put everybody's mind at ease."

"I appreciate your prayers 'cause I'm a person of faith. I can always use prayers for anything and everything. But I want you to know that I'm okay. I've got some problems as I mentioned back when my husband Carl was very sick..."
