

Downright Demonic: Tyler Robinson Reportedly Lived With Transgender Partner Prior to Charlie Kirk Assassination

More information continues to circulate regarding the suspect in the Charlie Kirk assassination.

Authorities identified 22-year-old Tyler Robinson as the suspect behind the assassination of Turning Point USA co-founder, Charlie Kirk. Now, as the New York Post reports, Robinson was living with a transgender partner prior to Kirk's assassination.

Fox News' Brooke Singman first broke the news on X.

EXCLUSIVE: Charlie Kirk assassin Tyler Robinson lived with his transgender partner, sources tell me.

The individual, who is a male transitioning to a female, is fully cooperating with the FBI.

Sources tell me the FBI had texts and other communications between Robinson and the individual that helped FBI authorities solidify that Robinson was indeed the shooter.

As the New York Post noted, texts and other forms of communication between this person and Robinson helped federal agents identify Robinson as the suspect. They also noted that a roommate is currently cooperating with the federal investigation. This roommate shared Discord communication from someone named “Tyler” discussing bullet casings that resembled the ones from the assassination location and how he needed to “retrieve a rifle from a drop point.”

This latest news comes as Erika Kirk delivered her first message to the nation following her husband’s death.

“The movement is not going anywhere. It will only grow stronger,” Kirk said. ““Our battle is not simply a political one. Above all, it is spiritual. Spiritual warfare is palpable. But our God, you guys, our God is so good. So incredibly good.”

She also posted to Instagram photos beside Charlie Kirk’s open casket as she said goodbye to him, writing in the captions:

The sound of this widow weeping echos throughout this world like a battle cry.

I have no idea what any of this means. But baby I know you do and so does our Lord.

They have no idea what they just ignited within this wife. If they thought my husband’s mission was big have no idea.

You. All of you. Will never. Ever. Forget my husband @charliekirk1776 I’ll make sure of it.

Rest in the arms of our Lord baby as he blankets you with the words I know your heart always strived to hear, “well done My good and faithful servant.”

Turning Point USA also announced on their Facebook page that Kirk's service would be held on Sunday, Sept. 21 at State Farm Stadium located in Glendale, Arizona.
