

Emma Stark's 2025 Prophetic Word: From 'Dismantling to Establishing'

What is the Lord saying about the year 2025?

As Christians around the world press in to seek the presence of God for what He wants to do in this next year, some prophetic voices like Emma Stark are sharing what they've heard.

"Dismantling to establishing," Stark states, "That is the word of the Lord."

She believes this year will be much like Psalm 90:17, which speaks of the favor of the Lord being upon the works of our hands.

"The Lord is saying, 'I will make what you do firm. I will make what you do to be raised like a house on pillars. What you're touching, what you're building, will become stable.' The Lord says, 'It will become that which endures. I am working for what your hands touch to be ordered, to be arranged. I am setting it up, I am fixing it, I am establishing it, I'm making it firm, I'm making it secure.'"

Stark says God is now bringing order from the time of dismantling to bring a solid establishment and security to His people.

"God is establishing security and stability," Stark says.

She points out that in our own human effort, we have tried everything possible to make things happen, to leverage situations, but that the Lord is speaking against this kind of striving.

“God just said, ‘ grace is resisting you because there’s something in you that needs to have a greater dismantling, a greater burning, a greater sense that I need to disorient you from some things that are a wrong orientation,’” Stark says.

Through all of the time of dismantling and reorientation, Stark believes the prayers for fulfillment will be answered.

The cry for completion has been heard. For those that knew dismantling, for those that walked away from the old wine, for those who have been tested repetitively, for those who were purged of the empire, for those that walked away from the control of Christian monarchy, for those who rejected territorial, sinful domination, My beauty and My Lawmaking comes to establish the work of your grace and my many-sided glory comes and gives new kingdom manifestations that show beyond any doubt that I will build with and through you afresh. I come not to re-establish you in what has been, but I come to firmly establish and to deeply root you in place in a new and current work of My hand.

With 2024 closing and 2025 around the corner, let us seek His presence for what He may want to establish in our lives in the coming year.
