

End-Time Prophecy and the JFK Files: The Exposure No One Saw Coming!

In a stunning and long-awaited move, President Donald Trump has authorized the release of the JFK assassination files to the National Archives. Insights on Oswald's background, that he was not an agent controlled by the KGB and was considered a "poor shot," are just the surface of what the files are actually uncovering.

Beyond the physical, there is a spiritual component to the timing of the release of these files.

As Amanda Grace notes, the timing of this historic event is profoundly significant, occurring during the window between Purim and Passover, a period marked by divine reversals and the exposure of hidden plots.

"Four days after Purim finishes and we enter the window between Purim and Passover, the JFK files, after decades, have been released," Grace says.

Grace highlights how Purim commemorates the deliverance of the Jewish people from Haman's wicked scheme in the book of Esther. Perhaps this may also be a time of exposure where God is shedding light on the darkness and bringing deliverance.

As Grace points out, the released files contain a striking document dated Mar. 26, 1964, which references an article from the Mar. 7, 1964 issue of the Italian Communist Party's weekly publication. This article shockingly claims that “the agency” was responsible for organizing the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The timing is noteworthy, as the article appeared just four months after Kennedy’s death in Nov. 1963.

“Purim 1964, when this article came out, was Feb. 27, that year. Passover that year of this article began Mar. 27 1964,” she says.

What is significant about that?

This is the same date that years later the Covenant School shooting occurred in Nashville, Tennessee. A transgender individual attacked the Christian school, symbolizing, in Grace’s interpretation, an assault on the nation’s covenant with God. Three days later, Donald Trump was indicted—a spiritual echo, she suggests, of the enemy’s attempt to destroy righteous leadership.

Now, in March 2025, exactly four days after Purim, Trump releases the JFK files—once again in the same prophetic window. Grace believes this is no coincidence but rather a divine sign of hidden truths being revealed.

As the nation processes the revelations from these long-awaited files, believers are reminded to stand firm in faith, trusting that God’s hand is at work in the unveiling of truth.
