

End Times Are Here: See the Outrageous Way Your Tax Dollars Were Spent

We really shouldn't be surprised with how our tax dollars have been used over the past few years.

As President Trump's Department of Government Efficiency continues to slash waste, perhaps one of the most egregious discoveries they made was how the National Institutes of Health spent millions to make "transgender animals."

Yes, our government spent millions to create transgender animals.

According to Fox News, more than $10 million were spent on this research. Since the unveiling of these experiments, DOGE has reportedly cut ten of these "transgender animal" research grants that were first reported by the White Coat Waste Project.

Originally, the University of Pacific Stockton was to receive $1 million for a project which would've removed rats' reproductive systems and injected them with testosterone or estrogen, along with a recreational party drug. Now, the Trump administration cut over $1 million for these wasteful, cruel projects.

Not only is this completely bizarre, but it also goes to show that the end times really will bring about unethical, indescribable practices as it was in the days of Noah.

The discussion of these “transgender animals” comes as scientists have also talked about creating a “wooly mouse” by taking historic mammoth DNA and crossing it with mice. The level of evil behind these scientific experiments is much worse than any of us would have ever thought.

Jesus warned that in the last days, society would mirror the corruption and depravity of Noah's era (Matt. 24: 37-39). The tampering with God's creation, whether through the perversion of gender in animals or the reckless manipulation of DNA, reveals a spirit of rebellion against the divine order. These experiments are not simply a misuse of tax dollars—they are a reflection of humanity's growing defiance against the Creator, hastening the fulfillment of end-times prophecy.

The increasing wickedness of the world is a sign that the return of Jesus is drawing near. Though the world descends further into confusion and chaos, we can stand firm in the promise that God remains sovereign, and one day, He will restore all things to His perfect order.
