

Evangelist Alveda King: Dobbs 'Leak' an Unhelpful Distraction

In the wake of the “leaked” draft of the highly debated Dobbs case ruling, I salute my friend Brooke Rollins and other leaders who advise us to stay focused on life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness for all Americans and the entire human race.

“This leak of a draft Court opinion is unprecedented and deserves a full investigation. Decisions by the highest court in the land should be made through careful consideration of the Constitution, not politically motivated pressure campaigns. We will reserve comment until the final Court decision is published,” says Brooke, who is president and CEO of America First Policy Institute (AFPI). I serve with Brooke as chairman of the Center for the American Dream for the Institute.

As we await the Supreme Court decision, “we the people” continue to hope and pray for a great victory for life and for the day to come when all Americans have equal access and opportunity to pursue the American Dream – from the womb to the tomb! Again, I salute my friend Brooke and other leaders who advise us to stay focused on life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness for all Americans and the entire human race.

Along with prayers for the Dobbs case, on May 5, please tune in to my National Day of Prayer segment on Alveda King’s House and visit Alveda King Ministries for up-to-date life-affirming resources.
