

Evangelist Dies in Tragic Fiery Plane Crash

Police say 48-year-old William Pergerson II, of Berrien Springs, died after crashing his plane at W.K. Kellogg Airport in Battle Creek, Michigan, according to a WSBT 22 news report. The cause of the crash is unclear.

“We were able to salvage my husband’s logbook out of the smoke,” said his wife, Sharon Pergerson. “Wow, all the places that he had gone!”

Watch the video to get more details, and please pray for his family.