

Family Launches Legacy Website for Lester Sumrall

Family Broadcasting Corporation announced the launch of , a website dedicated to the sermons, books, study guides and teaching materials of Dr. Lester Sumrall. The interactive website contains over a thousand videos, more than 100 books and study guides, hundreds of photographs and a biographical timeline.

“For the first time ever, the collected works of our grandfather, Dr. Lester Sumrall, are now available for anyone in the world to access on demand and completely free of charge,” said Drew Sumrall, president and CEO of Family Broadcasting, and Angela Grabowski, vice president, in a joint statement. “We are honored to reveal this extraordinary project and carry on the legacy he established over 60 years ago. This website is truly a labor of love and will be a blessing to those looking to deepen their faith in Jesus Christ.”

For convenience and ease of use, the website pairs the video teaching series with the corresponding book and study guides. All books and written materials on the website are available to read and download at no cost. In addition, the website provides a photographic timeline of the faith-filled life of Dr. Sumrall, taking visitors through his childhood, missionary work around the world, the founding of a multimedia organization and much more.

“Dr. Sumrall had a vision to reach the untold billions yet untold,” Sumrall and Grabowski continued. “This website ensures that future generations and people of all nations will have complete access to these timeless materials.”
