

Franklin Graham: President Obama Is a Mystery

When it comes to President Obama's response to the recent Umpqua Community College shooting, Franklin Graham is not mincing words.

"I don't understand the president," Graham said. "Christians were martyred (in Oregon)...We're seeing it not only in the Middle East but we're beginning to see it in the United States and the president is silent."

Graham also went on to defend Dr. Ben Carson against Mainstream Media attacks over his comments related to the Oregon massacre.

Watch the latest video at .