

Gen. Michael Flynn, Mikki Wills and Clay Clark Celebrate Real Heroes, Declare War on the Left's 'Great Reset' Agenda

Clay Clark and Gen. Michael Flynn's ReAwaken America Tour has just announced the Freedom Fighters Award Program to recognize the brave individuals who are standing up for our rights, for our freedoms and against the tyranny and oppression being imposed on the American people.

Gen. Michael Flynn, speaking to the 10,000 attendees at the Tampa, Florida, tour stop in June, said, "You're here because you love America! You're here to hear a message, and that message is: get involved! Local involvement produces national results!"

Flynn, more than most, knows the courage required to fight this unique cultural war. And to encourage and recruit more to the fight, he and Clark have launched the Freedom Fighters Award Program.

They desire to celebrate the real American heroes who are declaring war on the liberal left and its efforts to replace America's republic with a communist/Marxist new world order. As Klaus Schwab openly promotes a "reset" with the purpose of bringing an end to America, and liberals demonize Christian Americans and other patriots who oppose their efforts, Clark and Flynn are finding ways to promote truth and honor those in the battle.

"One quote that should inspire us all is, 'The only thing necessary for evil to triumph is that good men do nothing,'"

Clark said. "Creating the Freedom Fighters Award Program and holding the awards banquet along with one of our ReAwaken America tour stops is a powerful way to publicly recognize the men and women who need to be positively recognized."

People who are personally engaged seeking to have wrongs righted are eligible for this award recognition. Parents who are challenging local school boards over objectional content presented as education; men and women who are standing against the efforts for required "vaccinations"; students who have spoken at their local school board to remove the mask mandate; men and women who are working to expose the truth in public hearings about Antifa, Black Lives Matter Inc. and the movement to defund the police— everyday people courageously stepping up to oppose the opposition are those Clark wants to know about and acknowledge.

Presenting awards at the San Antonio, Texas, tour stop will be the program organizers, Clay Clark, Gen. Michael Flynn and Mikki Willis. Clark is the host of the Thrivetime Show podcast and the organizer of the ReAwaken America Tour, starring General Michael Flynn and Team America. Flynn is former national security adviser to former President Donald Trump. Willis is a filmmaker and producer of Plandemic, one of the most downloaded documentary shorts ever, garnering tremendous backlash and censorship from liberal media. Those selected to receive rewards will be recognized on stage Nov. 13, 2021.

"One of the major goals of the Reawaken America Tour is to arm people with the truth, inform them where the wrongs exist, then empower them to make a difference in their local communities." Clark explained. "The Reawaken America tour is nonpartisan when it comes to party politics, but clear when it comes to upholding the conservative Judeo-Christian values and our God-given rights our country was founded upon. We realize it's the everyday citizen who can bring the much-needed corrections, and we want to encourage, equip and recognize them," he added.

Anyone can nominate a candidate to be recognized with an award by simply visiting the Thrive Time Show website at this special link: Additional information and instructions will be available from this site as the program develops, so be sure to check back often.

The San Antonio, Texas Reawaken America Tour event dates are Nov. 11-13. This tour stop was originally planned for two days. However, with the addition of the premier showing of the first film in the Reawaken America docu-series and the Freedom Fighter Awards to this already power-packed agenda, an extra day was added to this event.

Those interested in nominating candidates, learning more about the banquet or getting tickets are encouraged to do so now, as every event of the tour has sold out well in advance. Visit . {eo}
