

George Zimmerman Will Surrender if Charged

(Reuters/Lucas Jackson)

A street in the Retreat at Twin Lakes community, where Trayvon Martin was killed, is seen in Sanford, Fla., Monday. George Zimmerman will surrender to authorities if he is charged in the shooting death of the unarmed black teenager, his attorney said on Monday. Zimmerman, the 28-year-old neighborhood watch captain, fatally shot Martin on the night of Feb. 26, saying he had acted in self-defense. Police released him without charge and said there was no evidence to contradict Zimmerman's story that he was attacked by Martin, 17.