

Given to Depravity: Organization Proposes Laws With 'Sick' Sexual Agenda

If you haven't heard of "The 8 March Principles" yet, you soon will. And, as end-times expert Michael Snyder says, most Christians—and really, anyone with a conscience—aren't going to like them.

"The 8 March Principles," Snyder says, "are essentially a blueprint for synchronizing all global laws regarding sexuality, gender and reproductive rights. On its website, UNAIDS, one of the organizations that helped draft this ungodly document, claims that many global laws that prohibit certain types of sexual behavior 'not only violate human rights, but the fundamental principles of criminal law themselves.'"

Snyder says, "Alarminglly, among the laws that are being targeted by the globalists are laws that ban adults from having sex with children."

And there it is. According to these people, anything goes. The era of Romans 1:26-29 has officially kicked into high gear:

"For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. Their women exchanged the natural function for what is against nature. Likewise the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men with men doing that which is shameful, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error. And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not proper. They were filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit..."

The foreward to “The 8 March Principles” was written by a lawyer—and a “proudly gay man.”

says that this Scripture, in context, says that “God, in effect, said ‘If that’s what you want, that’s what you get.’ It wasn’t long before they were living in a pigpen, smeared with filth—filthy inside and out. ...

“Worse followed, refusing to know God, they soon didn’t know how to be human, either—women didn’t know how to be women, men didn’t know how to be men. Sexually confused, they abused and defiled one another ... And then they paid for it ... emptied of God and love, godless and loveless wretches. Since they didn’t bother to acknowledge God, God quit bothering them and let them run loose.”

That is what “The 8 March Principles” are all about, Snyder says. It took UNAIDS over five years to finalize this new document. During a workshop in 2018, in collaboration with OHCHR and ICJ, they gathered to “discuss the role of jurists in addressing the harmful human rights impact of criminal laws, and the meeting resulted in a call for a set of jurists’ principles to assist the courts, legislatures, advocates and prosecutors to address the detrimental human rights impact of such laws.”

Human rights? That’s certainly their unbiblical and ungodly interpretation of them.

Most of the material in “The 8 March Principles,” Snyder says, is not a surprise. “Everyone knows that culture wants to promote abortion, the gay agenda and the transgender agenda.”

But what comes next is incredibly shocking.

“What floored me is that they are also seeking to weaken laws that prohibit adults from having sex with children.”

Here is an excerpt directly from “The 8 March Principles”:

“With respect to the enforcement of criminal law, any prescribed minimum age of consent to sex must be applied in a non-discriminatory manner. Enforcement may not be linked to the sex/gender of participants or age of consent to marriage. Moreover, sexual conduct involving persons below the domestically prescribed minimum age of consent to sex may be consensual in fact, if not in law.

“In this context, the enforcement of criminal law should reflect the rights and capacity of persons under 18 years of age to make decisions about engaging in consensual sexual conduct and their right to be heard in matters concerning them. Pursuant to their evolving capacities and progressive autonomy, persons under 18 years of age should participate in decisions affecting them, with due regard to their age, maturity and best interests and with specific attention to non-discrimination guarantees.”

In other words, you can throw the crime of statutory rape out the window. Snyder questions what the cutoff age for meaningful consent to sex should be—16, 14, 12?

And who is funding all of this? Start with the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, which Fox News News says donates millions of dollars annually to a nongovernmental organization—The International Planned Parenthood Foundation (IPPF), which is separate from the U.S. nonprofit. This organization claims that children are “born sexual and should learn about ‘commercial sex work’ under 10 years of age.”

Other significant donors to IPPF include the World Health Organization.

IPPF, which trains kids to believe that sexuality “is a part of you from the moment you are born,” is operating in over 146 countries.

✖ Breitbart recently reported that a former Planned Parenthood executive in Connecticut committed suicide recently after the police raided his home as part of a child pornography investigation.

In fact, as Snyder says, “a civilized society would be seeking to protect women and children, but in our society, there is a voracious appetite for exploiting and abusing them. This has got to stop. If we continue going down this road, there is no future for our country. Throughout history, every society that has embraced extremely loose sexual behavior has eventually fallen.”

With this agenda that globalists are trying to push on Americans, it is sure to have very serious consequences with our Lord and Savior. {eoa}
