

‘God Cannot Be Mocked’: Street Preacher Stands Firm After Confrontation With Police

Mon B, a singer and street preacher in the U.K., is standing firm for her faith after an officer with the British Transport Police attempted to shut her down, telling her sharing the Gospel was “all wrong.”

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

“God’s plan,” Mon B wrote in an Instagram post, sharing news of her confrontation with law enforcement officials outside King’s Cross, a railway station in London. “God cannot be mocked.”

//

In a separate post, the street preacher continued, “The GOD I serve is very real and HIS name is JESUS! He cannot be mocked. Don’t stop His servants from doing what He loves. To see souls saved. I pray this is a wake up call to all those who don’t believe and for Christians who have slumbered. CHURCH ARISE!”

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

During the dust-up, the British officer told Mon B travelers “just want to do their journey” and are “not coming here to listen” to someone preaching the Gospel.

“[But] if I was doing a happy, clappy song, it would be OK?” the evangelist retorted.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

The officer replied, "I just think it's all wrong," noting, too, that she felt Mon B was just too loud.

To read the full story, visit our content partners at Faithwire.

Reprinted with permission from . Copyright © 2025 The Christian Broadcasting Network Inc. All rights reserved.