

'God is Moving': Ohio State Experiences Massive Revival

God is moving in the hearts and minds of students all across the nation.

On Feb. 18, 2025, Ohio State University experienced a massive revival as thousands of students gathered, with nearly 2,000 accepting the call for salvation. Unite US announced this fantastic news on Instagram, giving praise for what God is starting.

We've been in awe of how God has already been moving on this campus over the past year, and He met us here again tonight.

Over 6,500 students gathered in The Schott to lift the name of Jesus and almost 2,000 responded to the altar call – experiencing the freedom only He can bring.

God is moving in this generation, and we know that He's just getting started!

Christian influencer Madi Prewett Troutt replied with "Praise King JESUS!!!!" and ministry leader Shelley Giglio said, "Thank you Jesus."

Evangelist Matt Brown took to X where he noted, "At many of these campus events, spontaneous baptisms have broken out from those who've responded to the gospel. Last night the temps were cold but that didn't stop students from getting baptized in the back of U-Haul trucks!”

SO MANY MOVEMENTS OF GOD

Thousands of young people made a decision to follow Jesus Christ last night at Schottenstein Arena.

You have probably heard of the Buckeye revival breaking through the Ohio State football team and campus and now Unite US gathered 6,500 students on...

Pastor Travis Johnson encouraged the body of Christ to let these students know they are being prayed over in this new season of life, and Dr. Malachi O’Brien said “God is marking GenZ with LOVE for Jesus.”

!!☐The cold temps couldn’t keep these Ohio State University students from going public with their faith in Jesus.

They walked into altars and to Jesus at Unite Ohio State.

☐Let them know you’re praying for them.@coach_prewettAU @Unite__US

Through these revivals we can see that God is after the hearts of the next generations, just as He was with previous generations, and He is still willing to transform hearts and minds into the image of Christ.
