

God TV, Bay of the Holy Spirit Revival Coming to Orlando

GOD TV is coming to Orlando, Fla.—and it's bringing the Bay of the Holy Spirit Revival with it.

The global Christian broadcasting network—the only Christian broadcaster to transmit globally from Jerusalem—is now available in Central Florida on channel 55.2.

As part of the Orlando launch, the Bay of the Holy Spirit Revival on Tour will be live from Calvary Assembly of God in Winter Park from Jan. 25 to Jan. 27. Pastor John Kilpatrick, evangelist Nathan Morris and worship leader Lydia Stanley will hold five revival services. All services are free and open to the public, or can be watched on channel 55.2.

"We hope to bring Orlando residents together and share the love of Christ with their family and friends as they watch the GOD Channel," says Mike Meyers, God TV regional director for North America. "We also have great new, inspirational programming with music concerts especially for young adults. Our passion is to capture what God is doing around the globe and present, to you in your living room, things you otherwise would never have seen. We are challenging our viewers to fulfill all God has for their lives in 2012."

GOD TV was founded in the U.K. in 1995 by Christian media pioneers Rory and Wendy Alec. GOD Channel schedule offers a broad cross section of cutting-edge programming, including many inspirational live broadcasts, into millions of homes worldwide. GOD TV's potential viewership already exceeds half a billion people, and its goal is to reach 1 billion people with the gospel of Jesus Christ through multimedia evangelism.
