

God's Hand on President Trump: 3 Signs and Symbols

The failed assassination attempt on former President Donald Trump on July 13 ignited a firestorm of conversation on prophetic signs and symbols over Trump's political rise. As I discussed in my book "God and Donald Trump," many across the prophetic community such as Kim Clement, Chuck Pierce and Lance Wallnau foresaw Trump's rise along with the divine protection extended over him from before the 2016 election season.

This week I sat down with Bishop Joseph Mattera, founder of Christ Covenant Coalition, to help people understand what God is doing and saying in these chaotic times. Here are three signs and symbols that may reveal where and how God is moving.

1. American flag shaped like an angel. It is a terrible tragedy that Pennsylvania firefighter Corey Comperatore lost his life bravely protecting his wife and daughter. Many people attending the rally reported seeing an American flag that appeared to be shaped as if it were draped over an angel. Even before the assassination attempt, people were saying it was God's presence at the event, and that His hand was over the rally and everyone in attendance, keeping them safe from harm.

"God does things symbolically, and it almost looked like a sign that God was protecting them," Mattera says.

2. Trump shows strength getting up after the attack. We do not make any comparison between a political figure and the risen Christ Jesus, our Savior. It was a show of defiant strength that Trump, bloodied from the assassin's bullets, returned to his feet. Of the many photographs from this horrific event, the image of Trump surrounded by Secret Service agents holding his clenched fist over their heads, with the American flag in the background, drew a stark contrast between the two candidates for president—an injured Trump rising from danger and pushing forward with courage in the face of terror, versus President Biden's failed solo press conference two days prior with a series of flubbed facts and names.

"People want a strong leader, and more people could come to favor him," Mattera says.
