

Grand Canyon University Celebrates Victory Over Major Lawsuit

Grand Canyon University is celebrating their victory after defeating a huge lawsuit with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC).

As Fox News noted, the school, which is the largest Christian University in America, provided an update that the FTC dropped the suit against them. Previously, the FTC sued the school, its president Brian Mueller, and their marketer Grand Canyon Education Inc. for “deceptive advertising and engaged in illegal telemarketing.”

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

The FTC said that the university misguided students seeking a doctoral program about the length of time an accelerated program would take, their status as a nonprofit, and calling prospective students who did not desire to be contacted.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

To order Jonathan Cahn's new book, The Avatar, visit .

The school's president, Brian Mueller, said that the charges dropped marks the finality of “years of coordinated lawfare by the government the largest Christian University in the country.”

As CBN News further quoted Mueller, he said, “As we have stated from the beginning, not only were these accusations false, but the opposite is go above and beyond what is required in our disclosures and are recognized as a leader in this area.”

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

This victory for Grand Canyon University is more than just a legal triumph—it is a testament to God’s faithfulness in defending His work. This outcome serves as a reminder that God honors those who walk righteously, even when faced with powerful opposition, and that His purposes for advancing His Kingdom through institutions like GCU cannot be hindered by worldly challenges.

Abby Trivett is content development editor for Charisma Media.