

Greg Locke: You Better Get Back on God's Side

The world is in such turmoil at the moment, it is easy to get caught up in it and get swept away by the deception spreading across the globe.

But amid all of the media attacks on Israel, the university protests calling for the eradication of Israel and even those claiming to be Christians turning their backs on God's chosen people, Pastor Greg Locke is standing up to all the critics and haters and warns them that they are sealing their own fate.

Locke made his stance known to any who doubted where he stands when it comes to Israel, and that the church is in danger of reaping God's curse and judgment upon itself.

All because people have forgotten about the Abrahamic Covenant.

The Lord God entered into a covenant promise with the first patriarch, Abraham, in Genesis 12 which reads, "Go from your country, your family, and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation; I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless them who bless you and curse him who curses you, and in you all families of the earth will be blessed."

Meanwhile, the replacement theory that the Christian church has somehow taken over God's promises from the Israelite people has infected Christendom and led people into cursing national Israel, essentially sealing their fate.

"The last days division in the 'Church' will be between those that unflinchingly stand and support Israel and those who are so woke and non-discerning that they stand with media-infused Palestinian oppression," Locke wrote in a Facebook post.

"The closer we get to the return of the LORD, the more Israel will be fiercely hated. It's a fact! It's a Biblical promise! True followers of Jesus, will do what Jesus taught us to do....STAND WITH ISRAEL. God has not cast off His people, but the lukewarm and weak Church will do just that," he continued.
