

Gun-Packing Grandma Turns Tables on Knife-Wielding Kidnapper

A tough, prepared and faithful grandmother is extremely grateful to be alive today, saying it was only the “grace of God” that saved her—and with a big assist from the gun she had stowed away in her truck.

Diane McIntire was armed spiritually, but also physically.

She says it was God who kept her calm, able to rationally think through the situation even though it was a life-or-death situation and one wrong move could spell the end. {eoa}
