

T.D. Jakes Plans Gospel Musical Holiday Tour

For the first time, Bishop T.D. Jakes, “America’s Best Preacher” and one of the most recognized voices behind the pulpit today, will headline an inspirational concert series along with the “Voice of Gospel Music,” Grammy and Dove Award-winning recording artist Sandi Patty.

Known for their uniquely dynamic voices, the duo will share the stage for a two-city Inspiration tour that kicks off in Winter Park, Fla. on Tuesday, Nov. 27, and concludes in Park City, Kan., on Wednesday, Nov. 28.

The holiday-themed concert will feature an exhilarating musical experience with the incomparable Sandi Patty and a power-packed inspirational message delivered in the inimitable style of T.D. Jakes.

“I’ve always been a huge fan of Sandi Patty’s and was delighted to be asked to share a stage for what promises to be an unforgettable evening,” said Jakes, senior pastor of the 30,000-member The Potter’s House of Dallas. “Audiences will be inspired, uplifted and entertained by such an unprecedented pairing!”

The Inspiration tour is presented by Toronto-based Gateway Entertainment Inc.
