

Hindu Extremists Attack Christians During Prayer Meeting

A group of Indian Christians was brutally attacked while gathering during a prayer gathering earlier this month.

The savage beatings, perpetrated by six violent Hindu nationalists, took place at Praise the Lord Church in Tamil Nadu state, India, and resulted in several severe injuries.

After the violent mob broke into the sanctuary, the church's lead pastor, Philip Rangasamy, was threatened before the rest of the congregants were warned that they would be killed if they ever dared to pray again.

Click here to read the rest of this story from our content partners at Faithwire.