

Hope Rises: Samaritan's Purse Helps Wisconsin Families Rebuild After Devastating Tornado

The hands and feet of Jesus are on display in Wisconsin as hundreds of Samaritan's Purse volunteers help families recover after a powerful EF-3 tornado tore through the Appleton area, leaving damaged homes, uprooted trees and devastated neighborhoods.

According to The Christian Post, the North Carolina-based ministry has mobilized approximately 750 volunteers from at least 23 states to assist with cleanup efforts while also offering prayer and Gospel-centered encouragement to those affected.
