

Horrific New Details Emerge of Christians Being Crushed Under Steamrollers, Hung Over Fires in North Korea

News broke of an escalation of words between North Korea and President Donald Trump, with the President releasing a statement warning North Korea not to escalate the situation any further.

“North Korea best not make any more threats to the United States. They will be met with fire and fury like the world has never seen. He has been very threatening—beyond a normal statement—and as I said, they will be met with fire, fury and, frankly, power the likes of which the world has never seen before,” Trump said, referring to North Korean leader Kim Jong Un at an event Tuesday afternoon.

Tensions have already been high since American Otto Warmbier died after serving time in a North Korean prison.
