

Iran Crippled: Israel Rises as World Superpower

In what he called a “game changing historic victory,” author and analyst Joel Rosenberg said Israel has emerged as “the dominant superpower of the Middle East, bar none” following a sweeping preemptive military strike against Iran.

“You have to understand that what just happened has completely changed the Middle East forever,” explains Rosenberg.

The surprise assault reportedly began around 3 a.m. Friday, June 13. “Israel attacked the Iranian regime with so much military force, so much precision and so much secrecy and deception, Iran’s leadership didn’t see it coming,” Rosenberg said. “There is just smoking wreckage where a really dangerous military arsenal once stood.”

Among the targets were Iran’s nuclear sites, ballistic missile facilities and high-ranking military personnel. “The chief of staff of the Iranian military, dead. The commander of the Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps, the IRGC, the top terrorist in all of Iran, gone. Dead. Assassinated by Israel,” Rosenberg said.

He also claimed Israel has eliminated “the top 20 leaders, 20 military commanders in Iran. They’re dead.”

Rosenberg said the military operation succeeded where previous administrations had only applied diplomatic pressure. “The United States didn’t destroy Iran’s nuclear program or its ballistic missile program,” he said. “It wasn’t the United States that took out the top 20 military commanders in Iran. That's Israel. That's astonishing."

He credited President Donald Trump for giving Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu the go-ahead after failed negotiations. "Trump gave the green light. Bibi was ready. His military was ready. Israel had practiced. And now Bibi Netanyahu had the green light," Rosenberg said.

"This is a huge answer to prayer, the prayers of millions and millions and millions of evangelicals in the United States, Canada, around the world," he added.

While the full scope of Iran's response remains unclear, Rosenberg warned that retaliation may still come. "It may get messy. This could go on for days or even weeks."

Rosenberg closed the report with a personal appeal: "Keep praying. Do not stop praying for the peace of Jerusalem."
