

Iranian Propaganda Video Threatens Assassination of Melania and Barron Trump

A newly surfaced video linked to Iran simulates the assassination of First Lady Melania Trump. The video, titled "How to Kill Melania Trump," shows her motorcade going through New York City and details the names of stores she frequents.

The shopping activities could be "suitable for operations by global freedom fighters," the video says. It also threatens Barron Trump: "This is just the beginning. Barron Trump, wait for us."

President Trump has acknowledged that he is top on Iran's kill list. "I'm No. 1 on the kill list for Iran," Trump told reporters in Ankara before leaving the NATO summit, as per The Hill. "I don't really care because I'm doing my job."

Order Jonathan Cahn's New Book, "The Altar of Pergamon" on !

The president has also said to The New York Post: "I've been on their list for a long time. That's what we're dealing with," he said. "The only thing is, I've left instructions – if anything happens, to just literally bomb them at levels that they've never seen before."

"I've been No. 1 [on Iran's kill list] for a long time, and it's the way life is, you know," he added.

In March, the former secretary of Iran's Supreme National Security Council, Ali Larijani, threatened President Trump and the United States. "The Ashura-loving nation of Iran does not fear your paper threats. Even those greater than you could not eliminate the Iranian nation. Watch out for yourself–lest you be eliminated!" he wrote on X. In a subsequent post, Larijani reiterated, "The Ashura-loving Iranian people do not fear your hollow threats; for those greater than you have failed to erase it... So beware lest you be the ones to vanish."

Larijani has since been killed in a strike conducted by the Israeli military.

This article originally appeared on American Faith and is reposted with permission.