As the world prepares for another striking glimpse of 3I/ATLAS, conversations continue to swirl around what this interstellar visitor might mean. Some will inevitably frame it as a possible sign of alien life, while others will insist it is nothing more than a fascinating comet.

While the world debates extraterrestrials, anomalies, and cosmic mysteries, the church must remain unmoved in its focus on Jesus. We are not to fall into deception, but rather to use wisdom and discernment to stay steadfast in our faith.
