

Is Ted Cruz's Dad Praying in Tongues in This Video With Kenneth Copeland?

A new video appears to show Ted Cruz's father speaking in tongues as Kenneth Copeland and George Pearsons lay hands on him.

Rafael Cruz has his arms opened, eyes closed and mouth moving as the pastors cry out to God on behalf of the country.

"We see Congress praying, we see them seeking God, we see prayer coming back into our schools, we see the Bible coming back into our schools, we see abortion being turned around, we see this nation being completely restored, completely delivered, for it is a time of the new birth of our nation and we're seeing it right before our eyes, now, in Jesus' name," Pearsons says.
