

Is This King David's Palace?

Buried deep beneath the earth in the outskirts of Jerusalem's Old City are said to be the ruins of King David's palace. World-renowned archaeologist Eilat Mazar unearthed ruins from the Second Temple Period, and beneath those remains she discovered the foundation of David's palace, inscriptions of Hebrew names and other ancient artifacts. The palace is said to be one of the most significant discoveries in modern-day Jerusalem. Here's why. Click below to watch video.
